SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION*CONDITIONS:

1. That the defendant not commit any crimes, federal, state, or local.
2. That the defendant is subject to all the standard conditions of being supervised except personal reporting and such other conditions as are practicable only with respect to individuals.
3. That the defendant conduct all of its operations in accordance with the MARPOL protocol and promptly report any violations of laws of the United States, whether federal, state, or local, or any citations by the United States Coast Guard for MARPOL violations to the Probation Office.
4. That the defendant develop, implement, adopt, and fund an environmental management system compliance plan to augment its existing safety management system, and in that regard be responsible for all of the costs associated with the development, implementation, maintenance, and monitoring of the environmental management system compliance plan. The defendant shall hire an independent monitor to be approved by the United States Attorney's Office to oversee the development and implementation of this plan. The defendant shall provide the United States Attorney's Office with a proposed plan for its approval and, once that plan has been approved, the independent monitor shall oversee the implementation of the plan. The defendant must provide the United States Attorney's Office with access to all vessels listed in the plan and to all facilities, employees, and records relevant to monitoring compliance with the plan. If the defendant changes its name, then the newly named company is still bound by all the terms of the plan. Any vessel that the defendant manages and that comes within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States is included in the scope of the plan. If the defendant ceases to manage a vessel or to own a vessel, then that vessel will not be subject to this plan.
5. That probation will begin from the earlier of the date the independent monitor certifies to the United States Attorney's Office that implementation of the plan is complete or the date of sentencing. If, during the period of probation, the independent monitor verifies that the defendant has refitted all of the vessels that are subject to the plan with new systems that limit discharge of oil to five parts per million, then, assuming the defendant is otherwise complying with all the terms of probation, the defendant may move to reduce probation by 90 days.
6. That the defendant provide the United States Attorney's Office and the Probation Office with notice immediately of any name change, business reorganization, sale, or divestiture that affects its ability to pay the fine or affects this agreement and the earlier environmental management plan that was discussed.

7. That the fine of $750,000.00 is payable in full immediately, with $500,000.00 payable to the United States Treasury and $250,000.00 (i.e., $125,000.00 of the $375,000.00 fine for Count 1 and $125,000.00 of the $375,000.00 fine for Count 2) reserved and used for community service as approved by the United States Attorney's Office. The money reserved for community service shall fund one or more projects for the benefit, preservation, and restoration of the environment and ecosystems in United States waters along the Hawaii coastline.
8. That the defendant take no action to seek to avoid the obligations and conditions set forth in its plea agreement. The plea agreement binds all the companies listed in the plea agreement.
